

BARNSTABLE COUNTY

In the Year Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

Ordinance 90 - 1

To authorize the County to pay for the costs of conducting municipal elections relative to State legislation creating the Cape Cod Commission.

Barnstable County hereby ordains:

Section 1. The County Treasurer is hereby authorized to reimburse each of the towns of Barnstable County for: (i) the costs incurred by it in conducting a special election as required by the second sentence of section twenty-one of chapter seven hundred and sixteen of the acts of nineteen hundred and eighty-nine; and (ii) the costs incurred by its town clerk in mailing to each registered voter a copy of the summary of said chapter together with a notice of the availability of the full text thereof and in furnishing a full-text copy of said chapter to any voter requesting same, all as required by the last sentence of said section twenty-one of said chapter seven hundred and sixteen.

Section 2. Not later than sixty days following such election, each such town shall submit vouchers to the County Treasurer in form satisfactory to the Treasurer for all its such costs, and the Treasurer shall promptly make payment to each town for all its such costs for which proper vouchers are submitted.

Section 3. The Board of County Commissioners is hereby authorized to arrange at County expense for having reproduced, and delivered to town clerks of such towns, sufficient quantities of the summary and of the full-text copy of said chapter seven hundred and sixteen to enable such town clerks to make the mailings and distributions of said summary and full-text copy as specified in section twenty-one of said chapter.

Section 4. For the purposes of this ordinance, the appropriated sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) in the County's operating budget for the current fiscal year shall be transferred from Budget Item 24 - Capital Stabilization Fund to Budget Item 10 - Miscellaneous and Contingent, Group 4.
